SAMSUNG'S ADDITIONAL DEFENSES

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(c), Samsung, without waiver, limitation, or prejudice, hereby asserts the additional defenses listed below. Samsung reserves the right to amend this Answer to add additional defenses, including allegations of inequitable conduct, and/or any other defenses currently unknown to Samsung, as they become known throughout the course of discovery in this action. Assertion of a defense is not a concession that Samsung has the burden of proving the matter asserted.

FIRST ADDITIONAL DEFENSE (Non-Infringement)

Samsung does not and has not infringed, under any theory of infringement, (including directly (whether individually or jointly) or indirectly (whether contributorily or by inducement)), any valid and enforceable claim of the Asserted Patents, either literally or under the Doctrine of Equivalents, and has not committed any acts in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271.

SECOND ADDITIONAL DEFENSE
(Invalidity)

Each asserted claim of the Asserted Patents is invalid for failure to comply with one or more of the requirements of United States Code, Title 35, including without limitation, 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, 103, and 112, and the rules, regulations, and laws pertaining thereto.

One or more claims of the '510 patent fails to meet the conditions of patentability and/or otherwise comply with one or more provisions of 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq., including §§ 101, 102, 103, and/or 112.

One or more claims of the '055 patent fails to meet the conditions of patentability and/or otherwise comply with one or more provisions of 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq., including §§ 101, 102, 103, and/or 112.

One or more claims of the '429 patent fails to meet the conditions of patentability and/or otherwise comply with one or more provisions of 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq., including §§ 101, 102, 103, and/or 112.

THIRD ADDITIONAL DEFENSE
(Laches, Equitable Estoppel, Waiver, and/or Unclean Hands)

Headwater's attempted enforcement of the Asserted Patents against Samsung is barred by laches, equitable estoppel, waiver, acquiescence, and/or unclean hands.

FOURTH ADDITIONAL DEFENSE
(Prosecution History Estoppel and/or Disclaimer)

Headwater's claims are barred by the doctrine(s) of prosecution history estoppel and/or disclaimer based on statements, representations, and admissions made during prosecution of the patent applications resulting in the Asserted Patents.

FIFTH ADDITIONAL DEFENSE
(Notice, Damages, Marking, and Costs)

Headwater's claims for damages are statutorily limited or wholly barred under 35 U.S.C. §§ 286 and 287.

SIXTH ADDITIONAL DEFENSE
(Covenant Not to Sue, License, and/or Estoppel)

Headwater's claims are barred to the extent the alleged infringement is licensed, either expressly or impliedly, or otherwise authorized. Moreover, Headwater's claims are barred because it entered an agreement providing Samsung the protection of a covenant not to sue, a license (express or implied), and/or agreement (contractual or otherwise) that legally estops Headwater from bringing this lawsuit against Samsung.

SEVENTH ADDITIONAL DEFENSE
(Failure to State a Claim)

Headwater's Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

EIGHTH ADDITIONAL DEFENSE
(No Standing)

Headwater's claims are barred because Headwater lacks standing to bring this suit. Specifically, Headwater cannot prove that it is the rightful owner of at least the '055 and '429 Patents.

NINTH ADDITIONAL DEFENSE (Prosecution Laches)

Headwater's Asserted Patents issued after an unreasonable, inexcusable, and prejudicial delay amounting to an egregious misuse of the statutory patent system under the totality of the circumstances. Thus, the Asserted Patents are unenforceable under the doctrine of prosecution laches.

The Federal Circuit has explained that “the doctrine of prosecution laches places an additional, equitable restriction on patent prosecution conduct beyond those imposed by statute or PTO regulation,” and that “[a]n applicant must therefore not only comply with the statutory requirements and PTO regulations but must also prosecute its applications in an equitable way that avoids unreasonable, unexplained delay that prejudices others.” Hyatt v. Hirshfield, 998 F.3d 1347, 1366 (Fed. Cir. 2021).

Headwater chose to pursue a “shoot first, aim later” strategy in prosecuting each of the Asserted Patents as well as dozens of related patents. Headwater filed the provisional application from which at least the ’429 and ’055 Patents allegedly claim priority, U.S. Patent Application No. 61/206,354, on January 28, 2009, but it did not file applications for the Asserted Patents until many years later, ranging from more than ten years to more than eleven years of delay.

Headwater’s unreasonable delays are inexcusable. Samsung has been prejudiced insofar as it has invested in, worked with, and used the technology that is now being accused of infringing the Asserted Patents during the time in which Headwater delayed its prosecution. The features accused of infringing the Asserted Patents relate to eSim technology. While Samsung was investing significant time and expense developing its products, Headwater was serially prosecuting the claims it now asserts.

RESERVATION OF ADDITIONAL DEFENSES

Samsung reserves the right to assert additional defenses that may surface through discovery in this action.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Defendants demand a jury trial on all issues that may be so tried.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Samsung respectfully prays that this Court enter judgment in Samsung's favor against Headwater and requests the following relief.

- A. A complete denial of Headwater's requests for damages, costs, expenses, injunction, and any other form of relief;
- B. Dismissal with prejudice of all claims in Headwater's Complaint against Samsung;
- C. A permanent injunction restraining Headwater and its respective officers, partners, employees, agents, parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates, and any other persons acting on its behalf or in concert with it, from charging, suing or threatening, orally or in writing, that any of the Asserted Patents have been infringed by Samsung under any subsection of 35 U.S.C. §§ 271 or 281;
- D. A declaration that this is an exceptional case under 35 U.S.C. § 285 and awarding to Samsung its reasonable costs and expenses of litigation, including but not limited to attorneys' fees and expert witness fees;
- E. An award to Samsung of its costs and disbursements in defending in this action brought by Headwater; and
- F. An award to Samsung of any and all further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
